THE STORY

Manakish is a favorite Lebanese breakfast - a round, flat bread that is typically topped with olive oil and zaatar (sesame seeds, thyme, and sumac), then baked in the oven. Other toppings might include cheese, minced lamb, spinach, or turkey, it is a one of the most popular dishes due to its flavors, low price, and the ease of preparation and It is recommended to pair it with tomatoes, cucumbers, yogurt cheese, or a cup of hot tea.

The Turks brought several dishes and ways of eating to varying countries including in Lebanon. One such dish was the popular Turkish Bread Simit.

Simit was modified in Lebanon and called Kaak bread. It is made of dough, shaped to a large ring-shape and is covered with sesame seeds. Fermented chickpeas (known as hummus in Arabic) are used as a leavening agent. Widely sold by street vendors, it is usually eaten as a snack or for breakfast with zaatar, Later people started filling it with cheese and labneh too.

THE CONCEPT

In 2018 Baguette Catering set up a Lebanese pop-up street food concept a Kaak and Lebanese food in Abu Dhabi and in 2023 in Dubai a taste that will take you back into the interesting history of Kaak and Lebanon.

As Kaake W Man2oushe we are serving the original versions of the Kaak and also created a special range to suite the choice and palate of the UAE clientele.

Since we don't want to lose the identity of street food and also want to give our customers a complete meal for breakfast, lunch and dinner, we have included sandwiches, platters, shawarma, salads, desserts and a few beverages.
